JUDGMENT

Raman, J.

Heard both sides.

It is submitted by learned counsel appearing for the petitioner that the passport has since been returned to the petitioner by the Registry. The same is recorded. The allegation contained in the writ petition that the child is under the illegal custody of respondents 3 and 4 is not substantiated by the materials produced in this case. Admittedly, respondents 3 and 4 are the paternal grandfather and paternal grandmother of the child. In such circumstances, this Writ Petition is closed without prejudice to the rights, if any, under any other law or to approach the Family Court.

P.R. Raman, Judge.

K. Hema, Judge.
